A PUBLICATION FOR FOOLS BY FOOLS

Fools Gold Publications: News for the Clampers of the Great Northwest

We saw the need for a newsletter, to keep everyone up on current Clamper goin' on's, and keep brothers who are unable to attend meetings informed of the good, the bad, and the ugly. Hopefully by connecting with the brethren this way we can all stay better informed and help promote the growth of the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus®!

Public Raffle Winner

As many of you know we decided to do a TV raffle a few meetings ago. I work with a few guys that said they would be interested in tickets if and when we opened it up to the public.

So the Greybeard's talked about it and we decided to run two raffles one for our members only and one for anyone. I work with about 2000 guys that are very generous. I was able to sell about 130 tickets myself. Then Tuna, Tinkerbelle, Bottlehound, Epic, and Gordo sold the rest to family, friends, and coworkers. In all the public raffle took about two and a half weeks to sell all 152 tickets.

Everything went very good. Since we sold so many tickets to people I work with the Secretaries at my Union Hall counted the tickets and drew one for us. As a disinterested third party since they had not purchased any tickets.

The person's name who one is Denise Utterback. She is a secretary at one of the marine terminals I work at. She doesn't make a whole lot of money and her TV broke about a month before. She didn't have the money to replace it. So it was almost like it was meant to be. She was extremely grateful. She is a very good person and the TV couldn't have gone to a better home. Well let me rephrase that last part, it couldn't have gone to a better home unless it was MY HOME! LOL!

JOKE OF THE MONTH

A golfer playing in Ireland hooked his drive into the woods. Looking for his ball, he found a little Leprechaun flat on his back, a big bump on his head and the golfer's ball beside him. Horrified, the golfer got his water bottle from the cart and poured it over the little guy, reviving him. Arrgh! What happened?' the Leprechaun asked. 'I'm afraid I hit you with my golf ball,' the golfer says. 'Oh, I see. Well, ye got me fair and square. Ye get three wishes, so whaddya want? Thank God, you're all right!' the golfer answers in relief. 'I don't want anything, I'm just glad you're OK, and I apologize. 'And the golfer walks off. 'What a nice guy,' the Leprechaun says to himself. I have to do something for him. I'll give him the three things I would want... a great golf game, all the money he ever needs, and a fantastic sex life. 'A year goes by and the golfer is back. On the same hole, he again hits a bad drive into the woods and the Leprechaun is there waiting for him. 'Twas me that made ye hit the ball here,' the little guy says. 'I just want to ask ye, how's yer golf game?' 'My game is fantastic!' the golfer answers. 'I'm an internationally famous golfer now.' He adds, 'By the way, it's good to see you're all right. Oh, I'm fine now, thank ye. I did that fer yer golf game, you know. And tell me, how's yer money situation?' 'Why, it's just wonderful!' the golfer states. 'When I need cash, I just reach in my pocket and pull out $100 bills I didn't even know were there!' 'I did that fer ye also.' And tell me, how's yer sex life?' The golfer blushes, turns his head away in embarrassment, and says shyly, 'It's OK. C'mon, c'mon now,' urged the Leprechaun, 'I'm wanting to know if I did a good job. How many times a week?' Blushing even more, the golfer looks around then whispers, 'Once, sometimes twice a week. What??' responds the Leprechaun in shock. 'That's all? Only once or twice a week? Well, says the golfer, I figure that's not bad for a Catholic priest in a small parish.

St. Patrick's Day Parade

Our first parade of 2010 went off without a hitch on our end. For those who couldn't come it was the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Sumner. It was very short which is great.
The main Parade Route Was only 3 blocks long.

We had about 25 Clampers and 2 PBC's. We saw a few guys that haven't made it anything for a while. Hopefully we see more of that this year. Remember everyone is welcome at the parades. So if you have a wife and kids then bring them along.

The parade started about 50 feet from a newly reopened bar called "The Silo" formerly Sharky's. I only had time for one drink before the parade but the drink I had was stiff, and the bartender was cool. It must have been good though because I had a hard time dragging all the clampers out of there when it was parade time. I did get a chance to see all the other groups in the parade but I do know there was a bunch of old John Deere Tractors, a Double Decker Bus, The Red Hat Ladies', Some assholes in Red Shirts, One Vintage BBQ Hurst, and Survivor on his Scooter.

The parade was put on the Sumner Rotary Club and the Ryan House Historical Society. I will make a few suggestions before next year. They didn't have even one person out there until about 20 minutes before the parade. I saw a city worker setting up road cones. He and the SPD were even out of the loop.

After the parade was over everyone was invited to Chewy's house for a Hamburgers and Hot Dogs.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY - WASHINGTON STYLE

Doc Maynard 54-40 will once again delight the young and old at the Washington History Day State Finals by being present for the presentation of the E Clampus Vitus Special Awards. Each year we sponsor a special award in both the Junior and Senior divisions for best use of the year's topic (this year it's "Innovation in History"), pertaining to the American West in the period from 1850-1900 +/- a few years, in a performance. We have seen some very creative performances in past years and are very proud to be one of the sponsors of this fine program. State Finals will be Saturday May 1st at Bellevue Community College, 3000 Landerholm Circle SE, Bellevue WA 98007. The awards ceremony begins usually about 6:30pm, but come early & see some of the competitions & exhibits.....doors open at 7:30 am.

<http://www.wshs.org/HistoryDay/default.aspx>

National History Day is a program, now in it's 26th year, that encourages the study of History and assists teachers in development of curriculum. A topic of the year is decided, then students can either write a paper, create an exhibit, do a performance, or make a documentary video. The students then compete in the Junior (middle school) or Senior (high school) divisions on an in state regional level, progressing to the state finals, then on to the nationals in College Park MD. The students are not limited to any particular period of History for their projects. Doc Maynard chose the American West 1850-1900 as a criteria for our award due to that being the location & time period of ECV's heyday , and performance because, well, we're a performance kinda group. We strongly encourage any Chapter, Outpost, AND Grand Council to look into getting involved in National History Day in their area
