

FOOLS GOLD

A PUBLICATION FOR FOOLS BY FOOLS

Fools Gold Publications: News for the Clampers of the Great Northwest

We saw the need for a newsletter, to keep everyone up on current Clamper goin' on's, and keep brothers who are unable to attend meetings informed of the good, the bad, and the ugly. Hopefully by connecting with the brethren this way we can all stay better informed and help promote the growth of the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus®!

The Brotherhood of Clamperdom!

Brothers, On behalf of my family and myself, I want to thank you all so much for the tremendous show of support for us during our family's recent tragedy. Seeing you all there at Robert's memorial service really meant a lot and the many calls to see how I was doing and if we needed anything were greatly appreciated....

You guys are the best! We have set up bank accounts for both of Robert's children, the money that you sent will be divided between the two accounts and used towards their education. Again, thanks. Things are beginning to get back to somewhat normal again over here and I hope to see you all again real soon.

Clampfraternally,

Brad

LETTER FROM THE EDITURD: CHUNKY TUNA

THE EDITURD
STONEY BEE

Well my trip to West Virginia was quite an experience. Had a great time hanging out with Stoney Bee, and seeing where our order first came to light! I also got to spend time with some really great people including Medal of Honor recipient John Baca. Thank you to all our Veterans out there, near and far!

Thanks to all the brothers of the Doc Maynard Chapter #54-40. Without your help and support, as well as some of the stupid shit you do, Fool's Gold would not be possible!

JOKE OF THE MONTH

Wisdom of An Old Clamper

An old Clamper dressed in tin, approached an attractive younger woman at a shopping mall.

'Excuse me; I can't seem to find my wife. Can you talk to me for a couple of minutes?'
The woman, feeling a bit of compassion for the oddly dressed old fellow, said,
'Of course, sir. Do you know where your wife might be?'
'I have no idea, but every time I talk to a young woman with big tits, she appears out of nowhere.'

Brother Dumbilicus"

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

'If you don't read the newspaper you are uninformed, if you do read the newspaper you are misinformed.'

St. Patrick's Day Parade

Sunday March 14th the Drill team will be in Full Tin for the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Sumner! we will meet at 12:00pm! The parade begins at 1:00pm! It sounds a lot shorter than Seattle. It will be easier to park, get to the parade rout, and find a bar.....!

Washington State Historic Society

We need judges for state--at least 150. The contest is Saturday, May 1, at Bellevue College and our biggest need is preliminary round judges, which means you'll spend your morning evaluating the outstanding work of Washington student scholars. We provide everything you need, including a yummy boxed lunch. Click Heer to sign up online!

REMEMBERING DARRELL "SHIFTY" POWERS

"SI VIS PACEM, PARA BELLUM"

We're hearing a lot today about big splashy memorial services. I want a nationwide memorial service for Darrell Shifty Powers. Shifty volunteered for the airborne in WWII and served with Easy Company of the 506th Parachute Infantry Regiment, part of the 101st Airborne Infantry. If you've seen Band of Brothers on HBO or the History Channel, you know Shifty. His character appears in all 10 episodes, and Shifty himself is interviewed in several of them. I met Shifty in the Philadelphia airport several years ago. I didn't know who he was at the time. I just saw an elderly gentleman having trouble reading his ticket. I offered to help, assured him that he was at the right gate, and noticed the Screaming Eagle, the symbol of the 101st Airborne, on his hat. Making conversation, I asked him if he'd been in the 101st Airborne or if his son was serving. He said quietly that he had been in the 101st. I thanked him for his service, then asked him when he served, and how many jumps he made. Quietly and humbly, he said Well, I guess I signed up in 1941 or so, and was in until sometime in 1945. . . 't which point my heart skipped. At that point, again, very humbly, he said I made the 5 training jumps at Toccoa, and then jumped into Normandy. . . . do you know where Normandy is?" At this point my heart stopped. I told him yes, I know exactly where Normandy is, and I know what D-Day was. 'At that point he said I also made a second jump into Holland, into Arnhem. "I was standing with a genuine war hero . . and then I realized that it was June, just after the anniversary of D-Day. I asked Shifty if he was on his way back from France, and he said Yes. And it's real sad because, these days, so few of the guys are left, and those that are, lots of them can't make the trip." My heart was in my throat and I didn't know what to say. I helped Shifty get onto the plane and then realized he was back in Coach while I was in First Class. I sent the flight attendant back to get him and said that I wanted to switch seats. When Shifty came forward, I got up out of the seat and told him I wanted him to have it, that I'd take his in coach. He said No, son, you enjoy that seat. Just knowing that there are still some who remember what we did and who still care is enough to make an old man very happy." His eyes were filling up as he said it. And mine are brimming up now as I write this. Shifty died on June 17, 2009 after fighting cancer. There was no parade. No big event in Staples Center. No wall to wall back to back 24x7 news coverage. No weeping fans on television. And that's not right.

Let's show Shifty our respect by tippin' your glass to him!

Rest in peace, Shifty.
